

Wanishi-Cho (Shuttle bus stop D)

Welcome! MS Diamond Princess

Temporally

Information Center

In Study Lounge Muroran

Welcome to Wanishi, Muroran!

Whenever cruising ships come to Muroran, we often open our store in the wharf to welcome the tourists.

In this Wanishi district (Shuttle bus stop D), there are traditional Japanese downtown, and we think you will find something interesting.

We would like to tell you about stores/restaurants that many residents in Muroran often visit.

Of course, we would like to offer our hospitality. Please feel free to visit us!

Good for having a rest:

- Information for tourists • Free Wi-Fi
- Coffee (for free)
- A master of Hokkaido Sightseeing

is in our Lounge. You can get the information not only around Wanishi but also other districts. Please feel free to ask.

◆Events      The other events can be happened ☺

- Exhibition of Origami Art
Without using scissors, the Origami Master created origami artwork.
- Souvenir store and Small Flea Market
Store: Cutlery and wooden items with wood-burning illustrations of Muroran, Postcards, Papercraft Envelop and small letter set, etc.
Small Flea Market : We would like you to find something interesting ... ☺

From the bus stop,
Go straight on the wide street and you can find
Our store with the black board.
